Across

5. (v) to destroy completely; to exterminate
7. (n) the Jewish New Year, the spiritual new year whose observances include special prayers and religious rituals
10. (adj) motionless; lacking the ability to move or act
12. (v) to lodge; to house
15. (n) trucks
17. (adj) endless or seeming to be endless
19. (n) a term used by the Nazis to mean a Caucasian person of non-Jewish lineage
20. (n) a book of detailed expositions and interpretations of Hebrew scriptures (Jewish law)
27. (n) a postponement of punishment; a temporary relief
29. (n) an expression of grief or sadness
33. (n) a driving out, especially by force
34. (n) scorn; ridicule
35. (v) scolded, especially in a noisy and bullying way
36. (n) a soldier, often a volunteer, who makes surprise attacks and raids behind enemy lines
37. (adj) loud and rough-sounding; hoarse
38. (n) literally, the place near Jerusalem where Jesus was crucified; often used to mean an experience of intense agony or grief
41. (adj) clearheaded; rational; understanding
43. (n) a Jewish holiday celebrating the deliverance of the Hebrews from slavery in Egypt
44. (n) an occult system, built around numbers, of foretelling the future or exploring the unknown
49. (n) intestinal inflammation causing abnormal pain and diarrhea (can be fatal)
50. (adj) indefinite; vague; subtle
52. (n) Nazi concentration camp prisoners who were given special privileges in return for supervising other prisoners
54. (n) restriction, especially of feelings and behaviors
56. (n) a state of being completely forgotten
58. (n) a burden; an obstacle

Down

1. (n) the act of leaving one country or region to settle in another
2. (adj) a Jewish sect of mystics who believe in a joyful worship of God
3. (n) the holiest day in the Jewish calendar, the Day of...
Atonement, a day of fasting and prayer for forgiveness
4. (n) a lack of interest or emotion; indifference
6. (adj) abnormally thin, especially due to starvation or disease
8. (n) small cases holding copies of passages from Scripture worn on the forehead and left arm during weekday morning prayers
9. (v) to loot; to rob of property
11. (n) an official public proclamation or order issued by an authority
13. (adv) constantly; without interruption
14. (n) formerly, a movement for reestablishment of a Jewish state; now, a movement supporting the Jewish state of Israel
16. (n) abbreviation of Schutzstaffel, a military-style unit of the Nazi party that acted as a special police force
18. (adj) of or happening during the night
21. (n) a fake; a charlatan; a trickster
22. (adj) shriveled; dried up
23. (adv) in an airtight way
24. (n) an occult Jewish philosophy based on a mystical interpretation of the Scriptures
25. (n) a flattering remark that is meant to be persuasive
26. (n) a person who is very wise, especially as a result of age and experience
28. (v) to state in detail; to explain
30. (adj) like a beast; cruel and savage
31. (adv) promptly and without formality
32. (n) a short, thick club
39. (n) a formal blessing; an act of calling upon God during a religious service
40. (n) a fellow countryman
42. (n) a formal article or book on a particular subject
45. (adj) of small quantity; not adequate
46. (n) the regular army of the Soviet Union
47. (n) the secret police force of the German Nazis
48. (n) a severe test or trial
50. (v) to urge to act; to provoke
51. (n) a scholar and teacher of Jewish law; a Jewish spiritual leader
53. (n) holiness; sacredness
54. (adj) required; that which must be done
55. (n) a building used by Jewish people for religious study and worship
57. (v) to beg; to beseech; to plead sincerely