I. Fill in (20 points)

1. ______ first year of school is unremarkable except for her discovery at the end of the year that someone has been hiding “gifts” in the 2. ______ of a tree in the 3. ______ yard. 4. ______ puts the “treasures” away for safekeeping. 5. ______ returns for the summer and the children engage in a new game they call 6. “__________.” 7. ______, suspecting what they are up to, expresses his disapproval. Scout, who is “neglected” by Dill, spends more time with 8. ______, a neighbor and friend of the children. Questioning Miss Maudie about Boo Radley’s reclusiveness, Scout learns that Boo’s father had been 9. “__________” Baptist.” Jem and Dill try to contact Boo Radley with a note stuck on the end of a 10. ______. Atticus catches them at it and orders them all to “stop tormenting that man” and never to “make fun at anybody.”

II. Multiple Choice (12 points)

1. ______ The physical setting of the novel is
   A. Montgomery, Alabama.
   B. Mobile, Alabama.
   C. Meridian, Mississippi.
   D. Maycomb, Alabama.

2. ______ The time period of the novel is
   A. the 1940s.
   B. the 1920s.
   C. the 1930s.
   D. the 1950s.

3. ______ The point of view of the story is
   A. third-person objective.
   B. third-person omniscient.
   C. first-person observer.
   D. first-person main character.

4. ______ One of Maycomb’s ladies who is not stereotypical is
   A. Mrs. Merriweather.
   B. Miss Maudie Atkinson.
   C. Miss Stephanie Crawford.
   D. Mrs. Perkins.

5. ______ Dill’s function in the novel is to serve as a foil to
   A. Burris Ewell.
   B. Jem and Scout.
   C. Walter Cunningham.
   D. Cecil and Francis.

6. ______ Atticus symbolically represents
   A. eccentric fathers.
   B. ideal brothers.
   C. fair and honest people.
   D. talented hunters.
III.  Short Answer (8 points)

1. Name the two (2) gifts left in the knothole.
   a.
   b.

2. Tell two (2) of Dill’s lies.
   a.
   b.

IV.  Short Answer (10 points)

Dill says he thinks Boo Radley might feel better if he’d come out and “set a spell” with the children. Do you agree with Dill? Explain. Would you enjoy spending time with these three children? Why or why not?