II. Short Answer (15 points)
1. What, according to Scout, causes Jem and her to begin “to part company”?

2. Jem risks his life by going back for his pants so that Atticus won’t find out what they had done, which, as he admits to Scout, was something they shouldn’t have done. Scout doesn’t understand Jem’s behavior. Do you? What would you have done if you were Jem?

3. The evening after Jem and Scout find the knothole filled with cement, Scout discovers that Jem, who had ordered her not to cry, had been crying himself. Why do you think Jem is upset?
