I. Fill in (16 points)

That winter 1.)______________ died, but no one, including Atticus, who went to the house, sees 2.)______________. The weather is the coldest since 1885, and the children experience their first 3.)______________. 4.)______________ house catches on fire and while the children watch the efforts to save it, someone puts a 5.)______________ around Scout’s shoulders without her noticing. 6.)______________ tells her it was Boo Radley, and had she turned around she would have seen him. Miss Maudie, to 7.)______________ amazement, is not 8.)______________ about losing her house, stating her only concern had been her neighbors’ safety.

II. Short Answer (10 points)

1. Describe how Jem constructs his “snowman.” What compliment does Atticus pay Jem?

2. Miss Maudie tells the children her only concern about the fire that destroyed her home had been the danger to the neighborhood. How would you react if everything you owned was destroyed? What does Miss Maudie’s attitude reveal about her character?

III. True/False (14 points)

_____ 1. Dill accepts Jem’s challenge to run up to the Radley’s front door and touch it.

_____ 2. Scout is disillusioned after her first day in school and considers running away.

_____ 3. Atticus advises Scout that looking at things from other people’s points of view is the best way to get along with people.

_____ 4. Among the “gifts” that Scout and Jem find in the knothole of the Radley tree are carved soap figures resembling them.

_____ 5. Miss Maudie defends Boo’s father, Mr. Radley, as a prime example of proper Christian behavior.

_____ 6. Against Scout’s protest, Jem returns to the Radley Place to retrieve his pants.

_____ 7. After the children discover that Nathan Radley has filled the knothole with cement, Scout cries uncontrollably.