I. Fill in (16 points)
After a classmate of Scout’s says Atticus “defends n-----,” Atticus explains that he is defending 1.)_____________, a Negro. He tells 2.)_____________ there will be “ugly talk” at school and that he wants her to fight with her 3.)_____________ for a change. In spite of Scout’s resolve to do what Atticus requests, she gets into a fight with 4.)_____________, Aunt Alexandra’s grandson, when he accuses Atticus of being a “n-----lover.” 5.) Her_____________ unfairly takes Francis side. Later Scout is able to explain what really happened, and makes Jack promise not to tell 6.)_____________ the real reason for the fight. Atticus tells Jack he hopes the children will survive the upcoming trial without too much bitterness, and that they will trust him and come to him for answers.
7.)_____________, by comparison with other fathers, fails miserably in the eyes of his children because he is “so old” and doesn’t “do anything.” However, when the sheriff relies on Atticus to shoot Tim Johnson, 8.)_____________, the children learn that their father had been known as “Ol One-shot.” 9.)_____________, who had explained to Scout why Atticus told the children it was a sin to kill a mockingbird, also explains why Atticus had given up 10.)_____________: he was a civilized man and knew that his “gift” of marksmanship gave him an unfair advantage over other living creatures. 11.)_____________ instructs Scout not to say anything at school about Atticus’ killing the dog with a single shot.

II. Short Answer (15 points)
1. Explain Scout’s reasoning regarding her “cussing fluently.”

2. Atticus tells Scout to try fighting with her head for a change instead of using her fists. Comment on this advice both with regard to Scout, yourself, and others. Why, in your opinion, do people resort to physical violence to settle disagreements?

3. In this chapter, it is explained that it is a sin to kill a mockingbird because they don’t do anything harmful; they simply sing their hearts out. Comment on this idea. Although it is expressed simply, is there more to this statement than simply the idea that harmless creatures shouldn’t be killed? How do you think the statement might apply to the novel thus far? Discuss.
III. True/False (Extra Credit)

1. Atticus explains to Scout that he must try to defend Tom Robinson even though he knows he won't win.

2. The children are surprised to learn that Atticus was once known as 'Ol' Dead-Eye."

3. Atticus tells the children that Mrs. Dubose is an example of real courage.

4. When Cal takes the children to her church, every member of the congregation welcomes them.

5. Scout is delighted to discover that Aunt Alexandra will be staying with them indefinitely.