Timed Write: Chapter 7
Pages 94 to 96
Bread. The staple of life. It becomes the vehicle of death for starving men on a train bound for death itself. From the last paragraph on page 94 to the break on page 96, list at least three ironic situations from the experience of Germans throwing bread to Jews in the open cattle cars. Your response should list, in sentence form, at least three ironies.

* ____________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________

* ____________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________

* ____________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________

Name ______________________________