The Wenatchee School District Science Resource Center needs help preparing materials for K-8 Science and Field Experience lessons. Flexible hours: we'll work with your schedule! Openings available immediately! We need volunteers all year. Please attend one of the following orientation dates: Monday, October 1st or Monday, October 8th - 8:15am - 9:15am at the Science Resource Center (School District Warehouse), 1001 Circle Street - located at end of Miller Street across from Appleatchee Riding Stables. Parking in second lot behind chain link fence. Follow signs to side door. Call or email with questions 663-9106. Supervisors, Karen Rutherford and Susan Ballinger. Check out the informational flyer in the Career Center.

Earn community service hours by helping with the John Newbery Elementary school carnival! The Hoedown is Saturday, Oct. 20, 4:00 - 7:00 p.m. at the school. Please contact Tammi Flynn at 663-4135 or nutritiontips@mail.flynnpkg.com

It's back! Evening Study, an opportunity for students to utilize WHS teachers and library facilities 2 evenings each week, will be happening again this year. Like previous years, Evening Study nights will be Tuesdays and Thursdays, from 6:30 - 8:30 pm in the WHS Library. Tuesday nights there will be 1 Social Studies teacher and 1 Science teacher available, and Thursday nights there will be 1 English teacher and 1 Math teacher available. On both Tuesdays and Thursdays students can use library computers and resources, but may not check anything out. Students can also make up tests, get help with assignments, work on and/or do research on projects, read, and catch up on academic work. Athletic coaches may also assign students to do Evening Study for study time to maintain eligibility.

Don't miss out on the opportunity to be a part of Wenatchee Youth Read One Book 2007.

Stop by the Wenatchee High School library and check out a copy of the award winning book, "Stuck in Neutral", by Terry Trueman. The library has over 30 copies available for checkout. Mr. Trueman will be the featured speaker at the Wenatchee Public Library on the evening of October 9th at 7:00 pm.
